FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

14 In October of 2003 plaintiffs purchased a home located at 78 Mill Pond Road, Jackson, New Jersey (the “home”).

15. To purchase the home, plaintiffs obtained mortgage financing from Countrywide Bank, FSB. In connection therewith, they executed a mortgage and note.

16. On or about December 22, 2008, Countrywide Bank FSB assigned the mortgage and note to Countrywide Home Loans Servicing, LP. Thereafter, BOA became a successor by merger to BAC Home Loans Servicing, LP, f/k/a Countrywide Home Loans Servicing, LP.

17. On or about May 27, 2014, BOA assigned the mortgage and note to Freddie Mac.

18. On October 3, 2014, Freddie Mac filed a foreclosure complaint against plaintiffs in the Superior Court of New Jersey.

19. On or about August 17, 2015, Freddie Mac purported to assign the mortgage and note to BOA. The original mortgage assignment was dated on or about August 17, 2015, which was the effective, legal date of the assignment, but at some point it was “backdated” in an after-the-fact attempt to make it effective as of June 1, 2015. On or about June 15, 2015, BOA purported to assign the mortgage and note to Pretium at a time when it had no right in and to the mortgage and note, because the mortgage and note was not legally assigned to BOA until on or about August 17, 2015 and any attempt to backdate and make the assignment effective as of June 1, 2015 was invalid and without legal effect.

20. On or about October 8, 2015, Pretium purported to assign the mortgage and note to Wilmington, as Trustee for Pretium.

21. On June 21, 2016, Freddie Mac, assisted by its attorneys Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri, filed a motion to strike plaintiffs’ answer in the foreclosure action (the “Motion”). In connection with this Motion, Freddie Mac, Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri represented that (i) Wilmington should be substituted as plaintiff in the foreclosure action, as rights in and to the mortgage and note had been assigned to it, and (ii) Wilmington had in its possession the original mortgage note.

22. Although Freddie Mac could not have properly pursued a mortgage foreclosure action against plaintiffs through June of 2016 without possessing the original promissory note, Kevin Elliott, senior vice president of Rushmore—the servicing agent of Wilmington—certified on June 17, 2016 in support of the Motion that the original mortgage note was in the possession of Wilmington since March 19, 2015. See Elliott Certification at para. 15, annexed as Exhibit A. On April 2, 2015, however, BOA, as loan servicer for Freddie Mac, falsely certified in answers to interrogatories that Freddie Mac or its authorized agent had possession of the original mortgage note. See Relevant Portions of Interrogatory Answers, annexed as Exhibit B.

23. On or about May 20, 2016, plaintiffs inspected what purported to be the original note and mortgage at the office of Parker McCay, counsel to Freddie Mac. They obviously could not have done so if, as certified to by Mr. Elliott, the original note was held by Wilmington since March 29, 2015.

24. Within the past year (and prior thereto) Freddie Mac, Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri sought to collect on the mortgage debt even though there was no right to do so, because Freddie Mac did not possess the original mortgage note. They falsely represented in certified answers to interrogatories and otherwise that Freddie Mac was in possession of the original. They falsely failed to disclose that Freddie Mac did not have the original.

25. In June of 2016 Wilmington, assisted by Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri, sought to be substituted as plaintiff in the mortgage foreclosure action to collect on a debt purportedly owed by plaintiffs. In connection therewith, Wilmington, Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri falsely represented that Wilmington had a right to substitute in as plaintiff so when in fact it had no such right, because the note and mortgage had not been validly assigned to Wilmington. The note and mortgage purport to have been assigned to it by Pretium on October 8, 2015, but Pretium had no rights to assign. Although Pretium purports to have received an assignment of the note and mortgage from BOA on June 15, 2015, on that date BOA had no rights in and to the mortgage and note; Freddie Mac only purported to assign the mortgage and note to BOA on August 17, 2015, and any attempt to backdate the assignment and make it effective June 1, 2015 was ineffectual and legally without effect. Because Pretium never validly obtained rights to the mortgage and note from BOA, the purported assignment from Pretium to Wilmington on October 8, 2015 was ineffectual.

26. All efforts of Pretium to collect on the mortgage and note within the last year (and prior thereto) were false, misleading and fraudulent, because the mortgage and note had not been validly assigned to Pretium.

27. All efforts of Wilmington to collect on the mortgage and note within the last year (and prior thereto) have been false, misleading and fraudulent, because the mortgage and note had not been validly assigned to Wilmington.

28. All efforts of Rushmore to collect on the mortgage and note within the last year (and prior thereto) on behalf of Wilmington were false, misleading and fraudulent because the mortgage and note had not been validly assigned to Wilmington. For example, in June of 2016 Rushmore sent plaintiffs a mortgage statement demanding payment of $337,875.28 on behalf of Wilmington. See Mortgage Statement, annexed as Exhibit C. At the time Rushmore sent this letter, plaintiffs were not indebted to Wilmington.

29. All efforts of Freddie Mac, Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri to collect on the mortgage and note until the substitution of Wilmington as plaintiff in the foreclosure action in June of 2016 (and prior thereto) were false, misleading and fraudulent, including the filing of the Motion, because Freddie Mac did not possess the original mortgage note.

30. All efforts of Freddie Mac, Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri to collect on the mortgage subsequent to August 17, 2015, including pursuing the mortgage foreclosure action, were false, misleading and fraudulent because Freddie Mac purported to have assigned its right to the mortgage and note to BOA on August 17, 2015. Hence, since August 17, 2015 Freddie Mac, Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri have been seeking to collect a debt that no longer was owed it to Freddie Mac. From August 17, 2015, when Freddie Mac purports to have assigned the note and mortgage to BOA, through the filing of the Motion on June 21, 2016, Freddie Mac, Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri never disclosed that Freddie Mac no longer had rights in and to the note and mortgage, falsely misrepresented to plaintiffs, the Court and others that Freddie Mac was a proper plaintiff, and falsely failed to disclose that Freddie Mac was not a proper plaintiff.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION (VIOLATION OF FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT)

31. Section 1692d of the FDCPA prohibits debt collectors from engaging in any conduct the natural consequence of which is to harass, oppress or abuse any person in connection with the collection of a debt.

32. The continuation of the foreclosure action by Freddie Mac against plaintiffs after it assigned its rights to the note and mortgage to BOA on August 17, 2015, constituted harassment and abuse by Freddie Mac.

33. The continuation by Parker Mackay and Williams Caliri of the foreclosure action against plaintiffs on behalf of Freddie Mac after it assigned its rights to the note and mortgage to BOA on August 17, 2015, constituted harassment and abuse by Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri.

34. Given that Freddie Mac had no right to collect on the mortgage and note given that it did not possess the original mortgage note, its efforts and those of Parker MacCay and Williams Caliri to collect on the note and mortgage, including the filing of the Motion, constituted harassment and abuse.

35. Given that Pretium did not hold a valid assignment of the mortgage and note, efforts by it to collect on the note and mortgage constituted harassment and abuse.

36. Given that Wilmington did not hold a valid assignment of the mortgage and note, efforts by it to collect on the note and mortgage, including its seeking to be substituted as plaintiff in connection with the Motion, constituted harassment and abuse.

37. Given that Wilmington did not hold a valid assignment of the mortgage and note, the filing of the Motion by Parker Mackay to assist Wilmington in efforts to collect on the note and mortgage by seeking to substitute it as plaintiff in the mortgage foreclosure action, constituted harassment and abuse.

38. Given that Wilmington did not hold a valid assignment of the mortgage and note, efforts by its service provider, Rushmore, to collect on the note and mortgage constituted harassment and abuse.

39. Defendants Freddie Mac, Parker MacKay, Williams Caliri, Wilmington and Rushmore violated Section 1692e of the FDCA when they sought to collect on the mortgage and note without any right to do so.

44. Given that Freddie Mac had no right to collect on the mortgage and note given that it did not possess the original mortgage note, efforts by Parker Mackay and Williams Caliri to collect on the note and mortgage on its behalf, including the filing of the Motion, constituted the collection of a debt by false or misleading representations or deceptive means.

45. Given that Pretium did not hold a valid assignment of the mortgage and note, efforts by it to collect on the note and mortgage constituted the collection of a debt by false or misleading representations or deceptive means.
